A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

I have, for the past six years, been a part of the Officers and Directors who have guided the Iowa Numismatic Association. We all appreciate all that has been done and I must say, in my twelve years in Iowa, and twelve years as a member, I have never seen a two-year period that was not successful.

Each person or persons coming to bat seems to have something new to add, and, while I hesitate to enumerate them, I can only say that our financial position and our sponsoring to things to advance the numismatic activity in Iowa has moved steadily along in all twelve years. Now I must acknowledge the incoming Officers and Directors. They are welcome, each and every one, and all are people I have worked with in the past, and I feel good about them. I will not take time here to individually recognize them, because they will be listed in the election results. I do want to thank Paul Campbell for accepting the duties of INA Historian, to allow Mr. and Mrs. Van Hook to take in a few shows more leisurely. The other appointed officers are: Bob Douglas, Bulletin Advertising Chairman; Marjorie Owen, Bulletin Editor; and Wilbur Balmos, Trophy and Award Co-ordinator.

Now for the good part (the end)- I must say that any success the INA has during my tenure as President, will be due to the elected Officers and Directors, the appointed Officers, and myself, as a team; the President is a very small part of any team. All of your Officers are progressive and we shall endeavor to go into the future and enhance the INA. There is a membership drive coming up - so we want your support for the team.

Thanks,

John Kelso, President, I.N.A.

Paul Campbell of State Center was appointed to take the post. A report was given on the 1977 Convention, to be held in Des Moines, by Don Mark, on behalf of the Des Moines Coin Club.

The regular membership meeting was held Sunday at 9:00 A.M. It was decided that the goals of the I.N.A. are to be printed once a year in the Bulletin. A bid from the Davenport Coin Club to host the 1978 Convention was accepted. The newly elected officers for 1977 were introduced.

John Kelso presented a plaque to Gene Morris, retiring President. A full listing of the new Officers and Directors may be found in the Secretary's message, elsewhere in this issue.

Following adjournment, a short meeting of the new Board was held. It was decided the 1977 Convention, to be held in Des Moines, would be a special tribute to Charter Members of the Iowa Numismatic Association. A special Award for Juniors was announced, as a memorial to Lowell Owen. Details will be published in a future issue.
